

Wolff, Veva

Veva Wolff

Sept 13-44
Mrs. Veva Wolff of Berkeley, formerly of Petaluma where she at one time was joint proprietor of the old Egg City Cafe, now Roney's, has joined the WACs and is now in training at Elgin Field, Florida, according to word received here by Mrs. A. H. Stein. She enlisted on June 6, the date of the first invasion of France. Mrs. Wolff is in the transportation department and is driving staff cars.

With WACs Sept 27 44

Mrs. Veva Wolff of Berkeley, formerly of Petaluma, where she was at one time one of the proprietors of the old Egg City Cafe, now Rooney's, is in training with the WACs at Elgin Field, Florida. She enlisted June 6, the date of the first invasion of France.

Veva Wolff 4/17/46

Mrs. Veva Wolff, who some years ago operated the old Egg City Cafe in Petaluma, has received her honorable discharge from the WACs, and is now operating the Pacheco cafe at Martinez, according to word received here by her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Stein. She spent many months in the service.